DEFAULT ATTORNEY GROUP MEMBER FIRM AMONG THE CHAMBER'S TOP 10 SMALL BUSINESSES FOR 2009 IN KANSAS CITY

March 26, 2009
Kansas City

Martin, Leigh, Laws & Fritzen, P.C., a member of the national Default Attorney Group (DAG), was recently selected as one of the 2009 Top 10 Small Businesses in Kansas City by the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce.

Berry F. Laws III, a partner in the firm, says of the recognition, "As an organization, we are particularly proud because this is our second consecutive year receiving this nomination. This year we competed against 1,602 other small businesses. The Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce is highly selective and each applicant is closely scrutinized before the Top Ten are selected." Successful growth, sustainability, community service and employee relations are all criteria for the award.

"As a national organization, we are immensely proud when our member firms are recognized not only for their superior performance within the default industry, but as exemplary businesses in their local communities as well," commented Kathleen Guerrette-Mitchell, Executive Director for DAG.

Martin, Leigh, Laws & Fritzen offers representation in Missouri and Kansas and is celebrating its 20th Anniversary this year.
